This is Samora

Samora stands for an energetic, fresh and exciting music experience. Her live performances are cheerful and enthusiastic, her appearance as charming as it is cheerful, her voice powerful and versatile.

The singer combines different musical influences, which are mainly rooted in modern Caribbean rhythms and which melt melody lines and harmonies that break through stylistic boundaries.

Her repertoire includes songs that range from catchy and pumping Reggae tunes to fiery Dancehall- and Afrobeat tracks. The Suriname-Dutch artist sweetens this with a good pinch of soul and pop.

Samora enchants her audience with her fresh and appealing style and captivates the crowd with catchy songs and powerful, fat sounds. With her convincing performance and a refreshing and strong stage presence she is an extremely attractive live act.

But also the international media is increasingly becoming aware of Samora. For example, she adorns the cover of the June edition of the renowned Californian music magazine «IRIE Mag».

Live

EPK – Live-Impressions

Samora is an experienced and convincing live act. From 2018 to 2020 she has performed almost 100 impressive live shows and has shown that she feels very comfortable on stage and that she steals everyone's heart in her audience in no time... Samora is backed live by her tight 5-piece band, in this formation she can best express her passion for music. But she also performs in smaller formations, for example as a DJ-Soundsystem- Act supported by Selecta Iray – by the way also possible as Silent Soundsystem (!) – or in smaller, also acoustic, formations.

Biography

Born in 1991 in Paramaribo, Suriname, Samora came into contact with music at a very early age and fell in love with the different sounds and styles she heard, from Gospel to Reggae. Already as a little girl she had the wish to become a singer. When she moved to Holland at the age of 14, she was able to realize her dream and turned to a career in the music business. Between 2012 and 2014 she attended the Nederlandse Pop Academie in Utrecht, founded her own band and participated in several music competitions, some of which she won.

After her first two singles «Amazing» and «My Turn» in 2015, she turned more and more to Reggae-related music, which was reflected in the 2016 insider tip «Momma Said».

Further singles and first bigger shows in the Netherlands followed until 2018, when she accepted an invitation from the band Open Season to be part of the «Female Reggae Voices» tour. Together with the Swiss band she released the tune «Me Na Fallin» in 2018.

In spring 2019 her debut album «Moengo» was released – a homage to the place where her parents first met. And in 2019 and 2020, Samora released a number of other successful singles such as «Keep My Fire Lit», «One And Only» and «Free Up» and consistently pursued her path of expanding her fanbase through commitment and convincing live shows. Highlights were for example performances at the renowned «Reggaelake-Festival» in Amsterdam dar, but also several memorable gigs in Switzerland.

2020 was the year of the fantastic «motivational tune» «Free Up», the international all-female riddim compilation «Female Reggae Voices», and the beautiful Reggae-collaboration with Lutan Fyah «What You Came For».

And 2021 starts with an amazing Reggae-Ballad called «Bruises», her fiery Afrobeats-inspired track «When I Say So», and an ode to life: «Jah Inna Mi Life» in which Samora goes back to her Reggae-roots and in which she delivers a beautiful song about the beauty of life and about how thankful you should be of being able living it.

Up next

Samora is releasing a lot of new music in 2021: Starting with the Reggae ballad «Bruises», the Afrobeats track «When I Say So» and the Reggae tune «Jah Inna Mi Life», there will be lots of new songs from Samora, all rooted in Caribbean music and definitely all powerful, strong and beautiful...
